

BEHOLD THE RISEN LORD!

FROM CONFUSION TO TRANSFORMATION

John 20:1-18 / 2 Corinthians 3:12-18

1. He is risen indeed!

From confusion to certainty ...

2. Behold the Risen Lord!

From certainty to transformation ...

A dramatic scene of an empty tomb. A large, smooth, light-colored stone is rolled away from the entrance of a dark, rectangular tomb. A bright, ethereal light shines through the opening, creating a strong contrast with the dark interior. The light illuminates the stone and the interior of the tomb, which appears to be empty. The overall mood is one of mystery and divine light.

HE IS RISEN INDEED!
From confusion to certainty...

“They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him.”

HE IS RISEN INDEED!
From confusion to certainty...

“...the linen cloths lying there, and the face cloth, which had been on Jesus' head, not lying with the linen cloths but folded up in a place by itself.”

HE IS RISEN INDEED!
From confusion to certainty...

“They have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid him.”

A dramatic scene of an empty tomb. A large, smooth, light-colored stone is rolled away from the entrance of a dark, cavernous tomb. A bright, ethereal light shines through the opening, creating a strong contrast with the dark interior. The light illuminates the stone and the surrounding air, creating a sense of hope and revelation. The overall mood is solemn and awe-inspiring.

HE IS RISEN INDEED!
From confusion to certainty...

“Mary.”

A dramatic scene of a tomb. A large, smooth, light-colored stone is rolled away from the entrance of a dark, cavernous tomb. A bright, ethereal light shines through the opening, illuminating the interior. A rolled-up stone lies on the floor of the tomb. The overall atmosphere is one of mystery and divine light.

BEHOLD THE RISEN LORD!

HE IS RISEN INDEED!
From confusion to certainty...

Certainty:
Because He lives, I can face tomorrow!

BEHOLD THE RISEN LORD!
From certainty to transformation ...

“Do not cling to me, for I have not yet ascended to the Father; but go to my brothers and say to them, ‘I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.’”

A dramatic scene of an empty tomb. A large, smooth, light-colored stone is rolled away from the entrance of a dark, rectangular tomb. Inside the tomb, a white shroud is draped over the floor. The background is a bright, hazy landscape, possibly a sunrise or sunset over a body of water, creating a sense of hope and new beginnings.

BEHOLD THE RISEN LORD!
From certainty to transformation ...

“Do not cling to me, for I have not yet ascended to the Father; but go to my brothers and say to them, ‘I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.’”

BEHOLD THE RISEN LORD!
From certainty to transformation ...

“Do not cling to me, for I have not yet ascended to the Father; but go to my brothers and say to them, ‘I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.’”

BEHOLD THE RISEN LORD!

From certainty to transformation ...

“Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. And we all, with unveiled face, beholding the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another. For this comes from the Lord who is the Spirit.”

(2 Corinthians 3:17+18)

BEHOLD THE RISEN LORD!
From certainty to transformation ...

Freedom in Jesus!

BEHOLD THE RISEN LORD!
From certainty to transformation ...

The beginning of transformation is our salvation in Jesus.

BEHOLD THE RISEN LORD!
From certainty to transformation ...

The Holy Spirit will transform us into the image of Jesus.
