► CHRISTMASTIDE.

Christmas Day (25 Dec) is Day 1 of a 12-day season, Christmastide, which ends on Epiphany Eve (5 Jan). While Advent is traditionally a more solemn observation, Christmastide is associated with festivity; its liturgical colours are white and gold, which together symbolise celebration, peace, joy, and the triumph of God's great work of salvation. During this period, we celebrate the miracle of the incarnation of Christ.
