EXODUS 3:2-3

There the angel of the Lord appeared to him in flames of fire from within a bush. Moses saw that though the bush was on fire it did not burn up. ³ So Moses thought, "I will go over and see this strange sight—why the bush does not burn up."

It is only because of God that we are sustained through all the things in life that should destroy us.

EXODUS

God places the extraordinary in our ordinary to draw us out of our everyday and into his presence.

EXODUS

Will we have the courage to embrace uncertainty, to 'go over' and discover a new path, or will we stay submissive to our current comfort, and 'carry on' like we always have?

EXODUS 3:4-5

When the Lord saw that he had gone over to look, God called to him from within the bush, "Moses! Moses!" And Moses said, "Here I am."⁵ "Do not come any closer," God said. "Take off your sandals, for the place where you are standing is holy ground."

There is no power in the attractional.
There is no transformation in the bushes that burn.

The power and the transformation is only ever in the God behind the bush,
and in his holy presence before us.

Our invitation is not to stand and watch,
but to remove our sandals and commune.
